

How to Use These Guidelines

Self-Assessment: Be honest and realistic. These values help the system make accurate predictions.

Scale-Based Inputs (0–100): Use thresholds provided to judge where you fall.

Count-Based Inputs: Enter exact numbers (e.g., number of projects or internships).

No need to be perfect — the app will give tailored suggestions for improvement.

Tips Before Starting

Review your resume, project portfolio, and achievements before assigning scores.

Think about feedback you've received from peers or mentors.

Don't overestimate or underestimate — accuracy helps provide the best-fit career guidance.
